

Enjoy the freedom to read your way.

The National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled (NLS) is a free library service for people who:

- Are blind.
- Have low vision.
- Have a physical or reading disability that prevents them from using regular print materials.

NLS offers readers audio books and magazines, braille books and magazines, music materials, a digital library called BARD, and the BARD Mobile app, which NLS patrons can use to access tens of thousands of titles on their smartphone or tablet.
